Policy Statement:

POLICY

It is the policy of the Reno Police Department to provide equal employment opportunities to all applicants for employment, and an environment for its employees free of harassment and discrimination in accordance with the laws of the United States and the State of Nevada. Said laws provide for equal treatment of all employees and citizens regardless of race, color, religion, age, national origin, ethnic group, gender, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, citizenship, membership in an employee association, or any other protected-class status applicable under federal, state, or local law, rule, regulation, Executive Order, or the City Charter. This policy does not preclude any employee or citizen from filling a complaint or grievance with an appropriate outside agency.

All employees have the right to work in an environment free of all forms of harassment and discrimination by employees, whether sworn civilian or volunteer, or other non-employees who conduct business with this agency. The Reno Police Department considers harassment and discrimination of others serious employee misconduct.

Step 4b: Narrative Underutilization Analysis

The Reno Police Department reviewed the Utilization Analysis and noted the following areas of under-representation:

- 1) White females were under-represented in the following job category: Protective Services: Sworn-Patrol (-16%)
- 2) Hispanic females were under-represented in the following job category: Protective Services: Sworn-Patrol (-14%)
- 3) Hispanic males were under-represented in the following job category: Protective Services: Sworn-Patrol (-12%)
- 4) White males were under-represented in the following job category: Administrative Support (-21%)

The Reno Police Department encourages application for all positions from all races and genders to fill its available positions with the best people in the area. Sworn positions have continued to be cut for cost saving purposes so filling positions with new people has been limited. Administrative support positions in the police department are primarily secretarial and records functions and do not have a high rate of turnover. However when jobs are posted, females make up 95% of all applicants.

Step 5 & 6: Objectives and Steps

1. 1. To encourage White females to apply for vacancies in the Protective Services-Sworn job category

- a. The City of Reno, Human Resources, seeks to hire, retain, and promote highly qualified applicants with appropriate representation of protected class members including women, ethnic minorities (Black, Hispanic, Asian/Pacific Islander, American Indian), Vietnam-era veterans, disabled veterans and persons with a disability, and to assure that there is no discrimination because of age or sexual orientation. Equal opportunity and affirmative action hiring goals are specified by federal Executive Orders 11246 and 11375.
- b. The City of Reno and the Reno Police Department have been dealing with severe budget cutbacks over the last three years. At this time the Reno Police Department has 86 sworn positions frozen and 49 civilian positions frozen

It is the policy of the Reno Police Department to choose the best candidate for the position regardless of gender, race or any other protected classification.

Congratulations, you have completed the EEOP Utilization Report!

For the EEOP Utilization Report to be valid, a responsible official in your organization, defined as someone who has the authority to implement your Equal Opportunity Program (per 28 CFR 42.304), must sign and date it. Based on the information you already entered about your organization, the applicable federal regulations require you to keep the EEOP Utilization Report on file. You are also obliged to make it available to the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) on request. However, at this time, you do not have to send the EEOP Utilization Report to the OCR for review. To claim the exemption from the EEOP submission requirement, you must complete Section B of the Certification Form and send an endorsed copy to the OCR. To fill in and download a copy of the Certification Form, click here.
